Officiating Forum on "Ethics & Sustainability: Role of Youths" 21 May 2022

Special lecture & Forum on "Role of Youths in Civilisation and Sustainability" 30 May 2022

Professor Dr. Sabri Musa,
Deputy Vice Chancellor (Student Affairs), Universiti Malaysia

Tuan Azril Mohd Amin, Chief Executive Officer,
Institut Masa Depan Malaysia (MASA)

"...we have to accept the fact that Malaysia is a plural and diverse society. Due to this diversity, efforts towards creating unity in Malaysia need to be complemented through continuous integration efforts. Thus, it is important to introduce the concept of civilizational dialogue or intercultural dialogue to the youths because dialogue can help self-understanding as well as allow the discovery of similarities and differences among cultures".

"Adopting a whole of nation approach enables us to synergise our efforts towards advocating and accelerating Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) in the local context, particularly in areas of sustainable financing, climate action and technology.. Localising SDGs obliges us to engage discussions at the grassroots levels by encouraging participation of the youth in the creative implementation of the SDGs".

Malaysia is a country known for its plural and diverse society. Due to this diversity, efforts towards creating a unity need to be complemented through continuous integration efforts. On the 21st May 2022, the forum "Ethics and Sustainability: The Role of Youths" co-organised with the Student Affairs Division UM and Universiti Malaya UNESCO Club (UMUC), highlighted the role of youths in appreciating the diversity of ethnicities and to flourish the core values of civilisation. The forum was officiated by Professor Dr. Sabri bin Musa, Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Universiti Malaya. The invited panelists were Dr. Asmawati Muhamad from Universiti Malaya, Mr. V. K. Soon from the International Network of Engaged Buddhists (INEB), Mr. Jason Leong from the Association of NexGen Christians of Malaysia (ANCOM), and Mrs. Gowri A/P P. S. Thangaya from the Malaysia Hindu Sangam. Assoc. Prof. Dr. Zul Ilham, the Deputy Director of UMCCD was the moderator of the forum. The forum was especially interesting because UMUC members also held a special exhibition with the theme "Values for Peace", which was held concurrently at the foyer area. The exhibition booths displayed ethical concepts encouraged in the four different communities represented by the invited panelists. The forum received an overwhelming response from students and ended with closing remarks from each of the panelists.

Graduation of Dr. Alwani Ghazali as a fellow of King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz International Centre for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue (KAICIID)

From right: Dr. Alwani and other KAICIID fellows

Dr Alwani Ghazali was selected for an interreligious dialogue fellowship training organised by King Abdullah bin Abdulaziz International Centre for Interreligious and Intercultural Dialogue (KAICIID). Starting from early 2021, she attended the module alongside some 25 other fellows from around the globe. The modules covered two areas: first, theories and fundamentals of interreligious dialogue practice, and second: intercultural communication. Apart from these modules, fellows were also coached to organize dialogue programmes and they discussed the major aspects of civilizational dialogue based on sustainable development goals (SDGs). Due to COVID-19 restrictions, she only attended one out of the normally three physical trainings. The physical training was in Lisbon, Portugal in which she was given opportunities to visit and dialogue with the religious leaders. There was also a tour to Calouste Gulbenkian Museum where fellows were briefed on historical aspects while observing Gulbenkian's personal art collections from various civilisations. The final part of the physical training was a graduation night in which Dr. Alwani received an Interreligious Dialogue Fellowship Certificate from KAICIID, which simultaneously marked her membership of KAICIID's fellowship alumni network.

Interview Session between UMCCD Director and Department of Environment (DOE)

The nomination for Anugerah Langkawi - Kelestarian Alam Sekitar (ALKAS) for session 2022/2023 will open soon. ALKAS is the highest recognition from the Department of Environment (DOE) to individuals or organizations in Malaysia who have made significant contributions towards environmental sustainability. UMCCD Director, Prof. Datuk Dr. Azizan Baharudin was the recipient of ALKAS in 2016 and the award was presented by His Majesty the 15th Yang Di-Pertuan Agong, Sultan Muhammad V on 21 October 2016 in conjunction with the National Environment Day. On the 30th June 2022, an interview session with Prof. Datuk Dr. Azizan Baharudin was held at Universiti Malaya by representatives from the DOE. Her interest in environmental sustainability especially in environmental ethics, the interaction and relationship between religion and science as well as the impact of science on nature and society, were among the topics mentioned. The interview material will be turned into a chapter in an upcoming book which will document similar interviews of the ALKAS recipients in the past.
